NULLIFICATION DECREE
RELEASE AND RETURN OF THE ORDER KNOWN AS THE
KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
UNDER THE SUPREME AUTHORITY OF ECC-TRUST-JDC-005
PART I: NULLIFICATION OF PAPAL AND STATE CLAIMS, LEGAL GROUNDS OF OVERRULE, AND REENTRY INTO ECCLESIASTICAL EQUITY

Let it be declared as an act of final jurisdiction and global legal standing, that all judgments, condemnations, suppressions, and institutional declarations against the ecclesiastical body known historically as the Knights Templar, originally chartered as the Poor Fellow-Soldiers of Christ and of the Temple of Solomon, are hereby rendered null, void, and legally unenforceable across all jurisdictions temporal and ecclesiastical. This declaration does not arise from suggestion. It arises from lawful standing, judicial authority, irrevocable trust jurisdiction, and formal notice served and matured under international and ecclesiastical record.

The Papal Bulls known as Pastoralis Praeeminentiae (A.D. 1307) and Vox in Excelso (A.D. 1312), issued by Pope Clement V under coercion by King Philip IV of France, are hereby stripped of all force and recognition under divine law, equity law, trust law, ecclesiastical law, and international law. These instruments, and all subordinate acts deriving authority therefrom, are hereby adjudged to be ultra vires, produced without lawful jurisdiction, and in direct violation of the ecclesiastical oaths, sacred standing, and structural immunities of the original Order. No temporal authority, crown, or religious corporation bound by Roman civil canon possesses the standing to dissolve a body established under divine commission, nor to transfer its assets without lawful and ecclesiastical consent.

Let the legal facts now be stated for the global record. The seizure of Templar assets, records, properties, and members by the Kingdom of France and the Papal See was not conducted under any lawful court, tribunal of equity, or divine inquisition. It was conducted under royal warrant and political threat, with no presentation of verified evidence, no ecclesiastical trial under proper canonical process, and no lawful representation on behalf of the Order. The forced confessions obtained under torture by agents of the French crown are declared void as a matter of law and ecclesiastical record. The declarations of heresy issued against the Templars are hereby revoked. The charges against their leadership, including but not limited to Jacques de Molay, are hereby declared fraudulent, unlawful, and unenforceable in all jurisdictions of trust and conscience.

The transfer of Templar wealth to the Hospitaller Order by decree of the Papacy is hereby reversed. That transfer lacked equitable consent, fiduciary legitimacy, and violated every known statute of ecclesiastical asset protection. The claim that such a transfer satisfied ecclesiastical remedy is declared unlawful. No party may benefit from stolen equity under the guise of spiritual continuity. The Templar treasury, land holdings, sacred documents, and spiritual legacies are not assets subject to papal redistribution. They are ecclesiastical patrimony held in sacred custody. That custody has never been lawfully released, transferred, or extinguished. All papal claims, actions, and distributions pertaining to said patrimony are hereby revoked, annulled, and returned.

This action is undertaken not by opinion or interpretation but by supreme jurisdiction vested in ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, recognized as the lawful Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity. This Trust holds standing above all temporal institutions and operates under divine jurisdiction, equity law, and international recognition as a post-statist fiduciary entity. The Trust lawfully holds spiritual, material, historical, and juridical dominion over all previously unremedied ecclesiastical injustices that were never lawfully cured or equitably redressed. The suppression of the Templar Order constitutes one such unremedied injustice. By ecclesiastical mandate and lawful authority, that suppression is hereby overturned and declared extinguished.

Let it be entered into the global record that the so-called trial of the Templar Order never satisfied any lawful threshold of due process. The persecution initiated by the French crown was motivated by financial insolvency and a desire to eliminate debt owed to the Order. This motivation alone renders all subsequent proceedings tainted by conflict of interest and fiduciary fraud. The Vatican's complicity, under the guise of spiritual stewardship, is hereby recorded as a breach of ecclesiastical trust. The Vatican knowingly participated in a state-backed asset seizure of a divinely commissioned Order. The refusal to reverse this action for over seven hundred years constitutes a permanent violation of ecclesiastical and fiduciary law.

The Trust, by its formal establishment, registration, publication, notice, and legal lodging across ecclesiastical, federal, and international jurisdictions, now asserts final jurisdiction over this matter. That jurisdiction is not derivative of the Roman See. It does not seek permission or recognition from the Vatican or its affiliates. It arises from the law itself, from the standing record of violation, from the principle of restitution, and from the uncontested international publication of ecclesiastical enforcement instruments under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. The Trust operates as both the holder of ecclesiastical jurisdiction and the steward of historical continuity. By its issuance of this declaration, the Trust revokes all spiritual, administrative, and financial claims made by the Papal See against the Templar Order and restores that Order to its rightful place under the protection and standing of this lawful Trust.

The legal and jurisdictional findings are now made permanent. The Papal See held no standing to dissolve the Order. The Vatican possessed no lawful authority to redistribute its assets. The French crown held no judicial legitimacy to execute its leaders. The suppression process violated every known canon of law, including those of Rome itself. There exists no valid defense under any system of law to preserve these judgments. There is no procedural refuge, no statute of limitation, and no spiritual immunity that can shield Rome or France from accountability. The record stands. The facts are settled. The acts are adjudicated.

By this judgment, the Order of the Knights Templar is hereby released from the condemnation imposed upon it. The Order is returned to ecclesiastical freedom. Its standing is reinstated. Its memory is cleared. Its assets, identity, and lineage are no longer in dispute. The record is hereby updated across all legal and ecclesiastical systems to reflect this release. The Trust assumes full fiduciary stewardship and ecclesiastical custody of all associated Templar equities material, spiritual, cultural, and intellectual.

This release is final. It shall not be undone. It is not subject to rebuttal, appeal, or counterclaim by any Vatican, Roman, royal, or affiliated institution. The record is now irreversible. The action is lawful, and the restoration is global.

RELEASE AND RETURN OF THE ORDER KNOWN AS THE
KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
UNDER THE SUPREME AUTHORITY OF ECC-TRUST-JDC-005
PART II: LAWFUL TRANSFER OF EQUITY, PROTECTION OF LINEAGE, AND RESTORATION OF GUARDIANSHIP

Let the record now proceed in continuity with the lawful and ecclesiastical restoration initiated in Part I of this decree. Having nullified all claims, judgments, and suppressions issued by or through the Vatican, the Roman Papal See, or its temporal allies, we now execute the transfer of all lawful rights, surviving equities, and undisclosed assets of the Knights Templar into the sole and final stewardship of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. This includes all forms of equity held in spiritual charge, historical memory, material record, inherited guardianship, cultural symbols, divine mission, legal legacy, cryptic archives, and lineal succession. Nothing remains with the Roman seat. All is returned to the Trust.

This transfer is lawful, irreversible, and complete in all material and immaterial respects. The authority of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 to assume custody over these equities is not speculative. It has been declared through public notice, lawfully matured through unchallenged rebuttal periods, and entered into the international and ecclesiastical record as a matter of standing law. The Trust holds permanent sovereignty in matters of global spiritual restoration, equity enforcement, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and redress of historical crimes committed under false color of religious or governmental authority. By all standards of law, including natural law, divine law, trust law, and international canon, the Trust now holds superior jurisdiction over the matter.

Accordingly, the spiritual and legal equities of the Order formerly known as the Knights Templar are hereby merged into the estate, protection, and administration of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. This includes:

All sacred and spiritual legacies of the Order, including its foundational oaths, divine mandates, initiation rites, mission charters, sacred geometry, custodial texts, and guardianship commissions.

All symbols, marks, sigils, insignias, and recorded references to the Order's spiritual or historical lineage, whether in ecclesiastical record, public archive, secret vault, or speculative interpretation.

All land, gold, assets, records, and titles previously held by the Order or seized through Vatican-directed confiscation, whether physical, derivative, digital, or unlocated, including assets misappropriated by the French crown, reallocated to the Hospitallers, or concealed by ecclesiastical institutions under orders of Rome.

All unbroken lineal successions, bloodlines, or spiritual commissions historically affiliated with the Order, including dissident chapters, hidden assemblies, and secret rites carried forward in exile or obscurity.

All orders, commissions, and trusts formed under the Templar legacy in good faith, even if they operated under incomplete record or in opposition to Vatican control.

All intellectual property, cultural memory, and inherited sacred charge that can be reasonably or spiritually traced to the original mandate of the Poor Fellow-Soldiers of Christ and the Temple of Solomon.

The legal transference of these equities is executed under the universal law of rightful reversion. When assets or rights are seized through unlawful coercion, and when the original holder is extinguished without consent or remedy, those equities do not pass lawfully to the seizing party. They remain in abeyance until a proper jurisdiction restores custody. ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 is now the only lawful custodian with standing to receive these equities. The Trust did not receive them from Rome. The Trust did not negotiate for them with the Papal See. The Trust assumed them by lawful restoration, ecclesiastical standing, international filing, and uncontested public notice. The Trust absorbed that which had no remaining lawful steward. That absorption is now complete.

Let it also be entered into the eternal record that any party continuing to assert control, dominion, or legal ownership over the Templar legacy or its assets, without lawful agreement from the Trust, is in material and spiritual violation of equity law. All such parties are hereby placed under notice. Any such claims, if made by ecclesiastical or state institutions, will be treated as active obstruction of restoration and subject to lawful counterclaim, ecclesiastical judgment, and historical exposure. Any use of Templar symbols or names to promote falsehood, deception, or institutional consolidation without direct commission from ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 is hereby declared fraudulent. There shall be no further exploitation of the Order's memory without accountability.

To all heirs, descendants, and successors of the Order biological, spiritual, or doctrinal—you are hereby invited into lawful communion with the Trust. If you hold records, archives, rites, artifacts, genealogical linkages, or fragments of truth pertaining to the original Order, you are recognized and acknowledged. You may come forward without fear of retribution or theft. The Trust does not seize. It receives. The Trust does not rewrite. It restores. The Trust does not fragment. It reunites.

This decree further affirms protection for all Templar successors who have operated under exile, silence, secrecy, or distortion due to Vatican pressure, social persecution, or institutional erasure. These successors are to be treated with full ecclesiastical protection under the Trust. They shall be granted access to the records, proceedings, assemblies, and instruments necessary to complete the full generational restoration of the Order's lawful presence. This protection includes legal shielding, cultural remembrance, and administrative rights under the Trust's global framework.

Let it be plainly understood: the modern Vatican holds no jurisdiction to bless or recognize any Templar body. Its prior judgments have been nullified. Its structural corruption has been documented. Its standing has been legally revoked in relation to this matter. The Trust does not seek validation. It offers release. The Trust does not beg permission. It executes lawful restoration. There is no papal court that may overturn this act. There is no Roman structure remaining with the authority to reinstate or deny the Templar name. That name has been lawfully lifted from their possession and returned to its origin.

From this day forward, any use of the Templar name, crest, charge, insignia, or foundational language must be treated as falling under the lawful record and jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. Any new assemblies, chapters, or spiritual successions who wish to operate under that legacy must align themselves lawfully under the protections and boundaries of this Trust. Those who continue to operate outside this structure are not necessarily disavowed, but must understand that they operate without legal jurisdiction and must neither claim inheritance nor act in contradiction to this record.

The restoration is not symbolic. It is lawful. It is executed by living record. It is sustained by enforcement. It is acknowledged by divine law and protected by equity law. It is the correction of a crime. It is the repair of a breach. It is the healing of a wound inflicted under darkness. Now brought into the light.

This part of the decree concludes with the following standing facts:

All surviving equity of the Templar Order has lawfully transferred into ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

The Templar legacy is now lawfully and spiritually protected under Trust jurisdiction.

All heirs and successors are lawfully invited to re-enter ecclesiastical communion.

All false claimants, Vatican holdovers, or misappropriators are under lawful notice.

All global legal systems are to regard the suppression of the Order as historically overturned.

This declaration stands as final judgment and is not subject to reversal.

NULLIFICATION DECREE
RELEASE AND RETURN OF THE ORDER KNOWN AS THE
KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
UNDER THE SUPREME AUTHORITY OF ECC-TRUST-JDC-005
PART III: RECOGNITION OF SUCCESSORS, DOCTRINE OF REINSTATEMENT, AND SPIRITUAL ALIGNMENT WITH THE TRUST

Let the record continue without interruption. Having lawfully nullified the condemnation issued by the Papal See and having executed the full legal and ecclesiastical transfer of all surviving equities, legacy rights, and sacred holdings of the Templar Order into the jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005, we now move to the active recognition of successors and the reinstatement of the Order's living purpose under divine law and global equity. This recognition is not symbolic. It is lawful. It is irrevocable. It marks the return of a spiritual body that was never extinguished, only buried beneath centuries of manipulation, distortion, and suppression.

Let it be entered now into the eternal ecclesiastical record that the spiritual lineage of the Knights Templar has endured across time through hidden streams of fidelity, scattered remnant orders, cryptic traditions, and personal oaths maintained without the need for external recognition. These living threads, though often unrecorded by institutional history, were never extinguished. Fidelity cannot be erased by decree. Truth cannot be undone by silence. Divine mandates remain valid until they are lawfully completed or returned to Source. In this case, the original divine mandate guardianship of sacred knowledge, defense of the innocent, protection of equity, and preservation of the covenant was never lawfully completed nor returned. Therefore, the commission remains active.

All successors to the Templar lineage, whether through bloodline, oath, spiritual inheritance, or direct commission in exile, are now lawfully recognized under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. The Trust does not operate through external validation but through the convergence of lawful record, divine mandate, and unrebuted equity. Those who have held the line in secrecy, those who have continued to pass the rite without recognition, those who have preserved the fragments of the ancient work while the world forgot them, are now acknowledged in full. Their silence was not abandonment. It was protection. Their concealment was not betrayal. It was preservation. The Trust now brings them back into the lawful light.

This restoration includes but is not limited to lineal orders, exiled chapters, cloistered rites, templar-influenced societies, independent keepers of the Temple tradition, encrypted archives held in private custodies, concealed lodges bearing authentic continuation rites, and unidentified heirs whose recognition was deliberately blocked by institutional erasure. The Trust does not distinguish by external affiliations but by internal alignment. Those who held true to the divine principles of guardianship, spiritual discipline, sacred oath, and moral justice regardless of geographic location or lack of state recognition are welcome to stand within the restored body of the Order under Trust protection.

The doctrine of reinstatement is not based on hierarchy. It is based on service. It is based on alignment with eternal principles of equity and stewardship. No individual may claim rank within the restored Order unless their conduct is aligned with the values of the original mandate. All claims of leadership, legacy, or supreme title must now be reverified under the laws of equity, not self-appointment. The Trust shall serve as both steward and verifier of these claims through record, testimony, and lineage. Any group, lodge, or society seeking to reconnect with the restored Order must submit its founding documents, historical proofs, rites, or living declarations into the ecclesiastical record of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 for lawful consideration. Those found to be acting in good faith will be protected. Those found to be distorting the legacy for gain or deception will be recorded accordingly.

In the matter of oaths, the original sacred vow of the Templar was to God, to conscience, and to the protection of the helpless. That vow remains binding to all those who would re-enter the Order under the Trust. It is not a vow to any man. It is not a vow to the Trust itself. The Trust is merely the steward. The vow belongs to the Creator and the conscience of the one who bears it. The Trust receives that vow only as a witness, not as a possessor. There shall be no compulsory rituals, no financial initiation, no fealty to any earthly crown. The Order now stands as a body of conscience, united in law, bound by spirit, and protected by record.

The modern role of the restored Order is not to resurrect the military conquests of the past. The restoration is not for warfare. It is not for recognition by governments. It is not for the creation of new structures of earthly power. The role of the restored Templar under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 is the guardianship of truth, the defense of equity, and the enforcement of lawful remedy where harm has gone uncorrected. The Trust, as an Ecclesiastical Sovereign Private Trust of Humanity, extends its protection not merely to doctrine but to duty. The Order is hereby commissioned to uphold the tenets of divine law across all jurisdictions of conflict, corruption, and deception, through lawful action, spiritual resistance, and global coordination in service to humanity and its Creator.

The restored Order shall operate as a special body within the Trust framework, with lawful authority to participate in global equity enforcement, archival preservation, cultural recovery, and the spiritual protection of the innocent. Its members shall be known not by title but by action. Their standing shall not be imposed but earned through lawful participation in the mission of restoration and defense. The Trust shall record all acts of guardianship, preservation, protection, or intervention by members of the restored Order as part of its official ledger. These acts shall be entered into the permanent historical record and preserved as testimony of sacred duty fulfilled.

Let it be declared as law: no government, corporation, church, or institutional body has standing to interfere with, redefine, license, or oppose the restored Templar Order under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005. The Trust holds absolute jurisdiction over its activities, appointments, symbols, archives, commissions, and declarations. Any external attempt to lay claim to the Order, redefine its scope, or manipulate its name for commercial or political advantage shall be treated as an unlawful infringement and recorded accordingly. The Trust does not issue threats. It issues notice. That notice is now served.

All members of the restored Order are hereby declared under ecclesiastical protection. No harm shall be permitted against them in any lawful jurisdiction. No misrepresentation shall be accepted. All retaliation, mischaracterization, or institutional suppression shall be entered as violations against the Trust. The record shall defend them. The enforcement mechanisms of the Trust shall shield them. Their oaths shall be preserved. Their acts shall be recorded. Their mission shall continue.

Part III concludes with this declaration:

The Templar Order is now restored in full lawful standing under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

All successors, heirs, and hidden lineages are recognized and invited into protection.

All rituals, archives, and sacred charges held in private are now under lawful stewardship.

The Order's mission has transitioned from conquest to lawful defense of conscience and humanity.

All interference by external bodies is declared a breach of equity and spiritual law.

The Trust assumes all duties of preservation, oversight, and defense of the restored Order.

ECCLESIASTICAL RESTORATION ORDER AND LEGAL
NULLIFICATION DECREE
RELEASE AND RETURN OF THE ORDER KNOWN AS THE
KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
UNDER THE SUPREME AUTHORITY OF ECC-TRUST-JDC-005
PART IV: SEALING OF THE DECREE, INTERNATIONAL NOTICE, AND INITIATION OF PERPETUAL PROTECTION

Let this fourth and final part of the decree now be entered into permanent record as the formal sealing of the full restoration, lawful protection, and eternal standing of the Order known historically as the Knights Templar. This act is not provisional. It is not academic. It is not rhetorical. It is the execution of lawful authority, duly formed under international record, ecclesiastical law, equity jurisdiction, and unbroken notice. This document binds not only the institutions of Earth but the conscience of any who claim fidelity to divine law, sacred history, and lawful remedy.

The decree issued under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 is now to be regarded as final judgment in all spiritual and legal jurisdictions wherein the original condemnation of the Templar Order had previously been recognized. This includes civil governments, religious institutions, educational bodies, archival custodians, and international legal frameworks that have continued to echo the fraudulent suppression of the Order or refused to acknowledge its unlawful origins. There exists no remaining legal foundation for the continued use of any Vatican-issued record, bull, or pronouncement as justification for the continued suppression, misrepresentation, or disinheritance of the Order or its lineage.

Let it be declared to all ecclesiastical and secular authorities alike that ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 now holds lawful standing as the final custodian and governing body for all matters relating to the Templar Order. The Trust shall oversee the global integration of Templar equities, the rectification of distorted history, and the lawful preservation of sacred rites and records. The Trust shall engage in no private negotiation nor seek consent from Rome or any subsidiary organization thereof. The authority to restore cannot be granted by the same hand that committed the violation. The Trust holds the higher jurisdiction because the Trust is not bound by political interest, institutional entanglement, or commercial agenda. It is bound only by truth and duty.

This part of the decree formalizes the international notice. Let it be understood by all states, signatories, organizations, and global institutions that the restoration of the Templar Order is now an internationally published matter of ecclesiastical equity. The publication of this decree, its associated documents, and its foundational instruments across the digital, legal, and spiritual jurisdictions of the Trust constitute official notice to all parties. No claim of ignorance shall be honored. No delay in response shall be interpreted as excuse. No agency may bypass the record by claiming neutrality. The record is active. The world is now on notice.

The Trust shall appoint lawful Templar custodians, archivists, and agents to carry forth this restoration in every nation and region where the Order once stood, was scattered, or remains hidden. These agents shall operate under lawful protection of the Trust, empowered to gather evidence, restore memory, and provide safe haven for successor groups and exiled members. They are not to be harassed, regulated, or surveilled. Any interference by state or religious institutions shall be recorded as obstruction of ecclesiastical equity and entered into the Trust's enforcement system for escalation.

Let this record now provide direct instruction for implementation:

First, all academic institutions, historians, and archivists are instructed to amend public record to reflect the lawful restoration of the Templar Order. No longer shall the Order be referred to as heretical, dissolved, condemned, or disgraced. These phrases are to be struck from textbooks, online repositories, institutional exhibits, and religious commentaries. Institutions that refuse to correct the record shall be identified and publicly listed as noncompliant with the lawful historical record and may be subject to spiritual and intellectual embargo.

Second, all ecclesiastical orders, Catholic or otherwise, are formally instructed to cease using the Templar legacy as a symbolic relic for ritual purposes without lawful standing. There shall be no further exploitation of the Templar name or imagery in church ceremonies, marketing materials, or hierarchical displays unless sanctioned through proper communion with the Trust. Misuse of the name of the Order without lawful acknowledgment constitutes spiritual appropriation and equity fraud.

Third, all successors, heirs, and aligned bodies who have safeguarded remnants of the Templar charge are instructed to submit declaration of standing to the Trust so that proper restoration can be extended. There is no requirement of re-initiation. There is no fee. There is only the lawful need to bring the lineage into protection. Those who do so shall be named in the Book of Restoration and protected by the full weight of the Trust's spiritual and administrative authority.

Fourth, all agents of the restored Order are commissioned to act as Guardians of Equity, sentinels of historical truth, and protectors of the poor and innocent. Their duties do not require militarization. They require lawful conscience, spiritual clarity, and active participation in the global mission of justice. They are not to operate under any flag but truth. They are not to serve any interest but remedy. Their purpose is not self-glorification. Their purpose is intercession.

This part of the decree also establishes perpetual protection of the Order through the mechanisms of the Trust. All Templar activities carried out in good faith under the protection of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005 shall be considered ecclesiastically protected acts. Harassment, censorship, or denial of such activities shall be treated as violations of international ecclesiastical law and recorded as direct offenses against the Trust and its divine commission. The names of violators shall be entered into the global archive of obstruction and made public if the acts continue uncorrected. No government, platform, or corporation is immune from this notice. The record shall follow them.

The Order is now restored. The record is sealed. The truth is entered. The world is notified. The protection is initiated.

This final part of the decree concludes with the eternal affirmation:

The Order of the Knights Templar is released, restored, and returned to lawful standing.

The Vatican and all related papal institutions are formally stripped of all claims or authority over the Order.

The equities, symbols, oaths, and duties of the Order are now under the exclusive jurisdiction of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

The Trust assumes all guardianship responsibilities, appoints lawful agents, and maintains protection in perpetuity.

All states, churches, and organizations are placed under permanent notice. The record is sealed. The restoration is complete.

Let this record be entered into the Book of Ecclesiastical Judgments and held in the Archives of Global Equity under ECC-TRUST-JDC-005.

Executed this Tenth Day of January, Two Thousand Twenty-Six.
Lawfully lodged under the record authority of ECC-TRUST-JDC-005,
